VOL XVI. WASHINGTON, D. C., SATURDAY, OCTOBER 16, 1897. No. 20

Ex.-Senator B. K. Bruce.

Hon. Frederick Douglas.

THEY SAY.

The meeting was a fizzle.

Who called the meeting any way?

The Baptist ministers ought to take a rest.

He without a fault please throw the first stone.

How some dogs do bark.

A barking dog is harmless ceature.

There were 500 good citizens present Mouday night.

The Baptists had a candidate.

It is a shame for fools to carry their grievances so far.

The Star ought to take a rest.

It was the Star's fight to get even with Mr. Ross.

It was a case of the devil correcting sin.

Don't say all you know, it is not wise.

The wise man says but little.

It is the talkative man who thinks he knows it all.

Speak gently to your friends.

Don't get the swelled head, if you should be elevated.

Be true to your friends.

You may need them again.

Speak the truth always, it is safer.

The Baptist ministers union indorsed the new trustees.

It is always wise to speak slowly.

Park Temple church had nothing to do with the trustees.

Rev. Taylor got himself in a hole.

Dr. Johnson is shrewd man.

Rev. Howard indorsed the trustees.

The meeting turned out to be a farce.

Senator Bruce made a great speech in Ohio.

It will be wise for Mrs. Terrell to take a hint.

A portion of the society of this city will not run the schools.

The people are with the new trustees.

The BEE is the people's paper.

Men should always practice what they preach.

The people are satisfied with the trustees.

Justice O'Donnell is the leading candidate for Police court judgship.

President McKinley is doing his duty towards the negro.

The time will soon come when the negro will be recognized as a citizen.

Ohio will go republican.

Maryland will go republican.

The colored democrat will cut no figure in the coming election.

The colored democrats are few and far between.

Major Moore will recommend the appointment of a colored detective.

Commissioner Wight knows his business.

The Baptist ministers will repent for their evil ways.

The testimony of police officers should be looked upon with suspicion.

Colored people are being cared for by the President.

Bruce is the coming man.

He is a safe and reliable repreientative.

An honest man is bound to win.

Think of those who are true and honest to their friends.

This world was not made for Ceasar alone.

The Maryland republicans are bound to win.

Thomas Platt never lost a battle.

He is the silent politician.

When you are honest you are bound to succeed.

Commissioer Ross is the negroes friend.

If you are true to your friends you are bound to win.

The strangest thing is the indorsement of the Baptist ministers of the recently appointed school trustee.

There are regular Authorized Collectors in the employ of THE BEE Printing Co., and when they call to see delinquent subscribers they are requested to pay them, and not give the excuse that "they will see the Editor." The Editor has no time to see the subscribers, and it is hoped that his friends and the patrons of THE BEE will pay the Collector when he calls.

ANOTHER CHANGE NECESSARY.

There seems to be a popular demand for the resignation of Mrs. Terrell as a member of the school board of trustees. THE BEE never did favor women trustees, and especially colored women. The latter class of women are more happy when they think they have the power to boss females under them. Mrs. Terrell's ambition is to get on the High and Normal School committee. President Whepley may put her there, but, he will regret the day it is done. There is Mrs. Cooper in the High School, who stood higher in her class than Mrs. Terrell, it is her ambition to be one of Mrs. Cooper's bosses. If Mrs. Terrell is placed on the High and Normal School committee, as certain as one and one make two there will be a row of some kind. THE BEE is of the opinion that female trustees on the school board are failures, and we hope Commissioner Ross will see the importance of making a change before it is too late

DEMOCRATIC NEGROES,

The democratic negroes in the several departments of the government are laughing at republican negroes because they are on the outside and cannot get in. In the government printing office Mr. Palmer is powerless to do anything for the colored printers, on account of the civil service. Some few days ago, we understand that Mr. Willis Menard and R. W. Thompson, two colored democrats, seemed to be elated because republican negroes are on the outside. Mr. Menard is the same individual who used to write democratic articles for the Colored American under Mr. Benedict's administration. He would often publish articles to the effect that the reason colored republican printers were discharged was on account of their incompetency. A better class of colored printers could not be found. Such men as R. F. Chisolm, H. D. Pryor, Edward G. Nalle, Wm. Syphax and others. It was not because these men were incompetent that they were discharged, but on account of their republican proclivities. It is hoped that Public Printer Palmer will find his way clear to let a few of these democratic negroes press bricks for Walker awhile.

PUBLIC PRINTER PALMER.

Public Printer Palmer, will not be intimidated or bulldozed by any body. He is not in duty bound to state any reasons why an employe in his office is discharged. If Mr. Palmer will give the ticket of leave man to a few of the white and colored democrats, he will help the good cause along. No one knows how colored republicans were informed against by a few negro democrats, who are now in the office.

It is the height of meanness and stupidity to attempt to cite a case which has been adjudicated in favor of one side as authority for proving an opposite one.

INDIANAPOLIS GOES DEMOCRATIC.

The election of Thomas Taggart as mayor of Indianapolis, Ind., was caused by a disaffection of the colored vote. The World, the colored democratic journal in the State, made a most bitter fight against the republican ticket.

The World is satisfied that the ew democratic mayor will recognize the claims of the colored men. To what extent its hopes will be realized remains to be seen.

HONOR TO DOUGLASS.

The following letter is in acknowledgment of the action of the city of Boston in the matter of a memorial to the late Frederick Douglass, to the President of Hayti by Dr. W. B. Evans, of the Mott School.

[Translation.]

DEPARTMENT OF STATE,
Office of Foreign Relations,
Port-au-Prince,
Sec. No. 23.] Sept. 2, 1897.

Mr. Minister:—

I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your despatch of August 21st last, which was handed to me by your distinguished private Secretary at the same time with the biography of the eminent American citizen named Frederick Douglass

Conformable to the desire which you therein express to me, I hastened to forward to its high destiny the work of Dr. W. B. Evans, and I am persuaded that his excellency Gen. T. A. S. Sam, will take a lively interest in reading it.

The Haitian Government sees in this an occasion to manifest its admiration of that great citizen who from the threshold of life underwent the long martydom of slavery, but whose unshakable faith in the destinies of his race, seconded with an incessant effort towards liberty, contributed so wonderfully toward the opening of the era of deliverance in the United States.

The republic of Haiti, as you may well remember, was proud to welcome, only a few years since, the Honorable Frederick Douglass in the quality of Minister Resident and Consul General of the Great Republic of the United States at Port-au-Prince, and it is not without a certain emotion, mixed with a legitimate pride, that it remembers that noble old man, who symbolized for us the triumph of the generous idea which assures to this century the admiration of future generations.

I thank you, therefore, in the name of His Excellency the President of Haiti, for the precious gift that you have had the thought to make to him, and I seize cheerfully this occasion to renew to you, Mr. Minister, the assurances of my high consideration.

(Signed)
SOLON MENOS.

MR. W. F. POWELL,
Envoy Extraordinary & Minister Plenipotentiary of the U. States of America at Port-au-Prince.

We are glad to learn from Rev. Credit, the refined and polished pastor of the Berean Baptist Church, and Rev. W. Bishop Johnson, editor of the Baptist Magazine, that they were misrepresented at the Baptist ministers' meeting this week that took occasion to condemn the appointment of the new school trustees. Both gentlemen deny that they are opposed to the appointment of the new trustees. THE BEE is pleased to learn that the new trustees are acceptable to these two learned divines. They have too much sense to follow a mob.

O'DONNEL FOR JUDGE.

In another column of this paper will be seen a communication favoring the appointment of Justice O'Donnell for judge. Justice O'Donnell is no doubt one of the most popular lurists in this cit, and his appointment would be satisfactory to the bar. On the other hand, Justice Hewlett is making a strong fight, and if he is convinced that he will not be successful, will undoubtedly throw his support to Judge O'Donnell. The friends of Justice Hewlett will push his claim to the end.

We wonder if Lynch indorsed Hill,
For the little office which he has?
Whether he did or not, Lynch is at

OUR PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

INTERESTING BOARD MEETING THIS WEEK.

The board of school trustees of the District of Columbia met in monthly session at the Franklin School building Tuesday afternoon. The meeting was called to order at 5 o'clock by President Whelpley. The following named trustees were present at the roll call: Messrs. Barnard, Harries, Hazen, Wilson, Whelpley, Mrs. Stowell, Messrs Spear, Bruce, Mrs. Terrell and Mr. Richardson. The only newly appointed trustees present were Messrs. Spear and Richardson. Superintendent Cook was present also. The business transacted was for the most part only of a routine character.

Mrs. Stowell requested the board of trustees to take some action in the matter of having the public school building at the corner of Fifth and G streets southeast, named. Mrs. Stowell informed the members of the board that she had spoken to Commissioner Ross with regard to the matter, and that he had suggested that the name of Hayes be used, in honor of the former President. The board indorsed the suggestion.

The committee on sanitation, consisting of Mrs. Stowell and Dr. Hazen, submitted a report of their investigation into the sanitary conditions of the schools of the city. The report stated that the schools of Washington can compare favorably with those of other cities.

The use of basement study rooms has been entirely abandoned. Among the several recommendations was one looking toward the changing of the free-book system so that each scholar may be given at the end of the year all free books that were furnished him for study. This would entail a one-third increase of the annual free-book appropriation; but it would prevent the spread of germs of disease through the continued handling of books by successive classes of scholars. If the books were given to the children the committee thought that much good could be done by home study after the closing of the school terms. The recommendations of the committee will be considered at a future board meeting.

President Whelpley announced that the board of trustees deeply regretted Mrs. Stowell's resignation from that body. The board approved the following changes in the different schools:

Several changes were made in the white schools, and the following in the colored schools:

Ninth Division—Transferred: F. L. Cardoza, teacher, to principalship of the Briggs school building; K. N. Alexander, teacher, to principalship of the Garrison school building.

Tenth Division—Teachers promoted: S. C. Lewis, from seventh to eighth grade, and from salary of $825 to $1,000 per annum; K. C. Lewis, from seventh to eighth grade, at salary of $875; D. N. Chase, from fifth to sixth grade, and from salary of $700 to $775, vice D. N. Coleman; F. M. Costin and M. W. Lewis, from fifth to sixth grade, at salaries of $700; H. H. Beason, fifth grade, from salary of $650 to $700, vice L. S. Chase; K. H. Slade, M. Liggons and M. L. Tancil, from fourth to fifth grade, at salaries of $650; M. A. O'H. Williamson; Isabella Sidney, teacher, at salary of $450, vice E. I. M. Hawkins.

The changes to take effect October 11, 1897.

Transferred—A. E. Bush, teacher, at salary of $475, to first division, to take effect October 1, 1897.

THE DEVIL CORRECTING SIN.

The recent meeting of the Baptist ministers, held a few days ago to protest against the appointment of the school trustees, reminds one of the devil correcting sin. The BEE will show, when this allege delegation presents a protest to the District Commissioners, that every critic in that delegation has either been under a cloud or have been directly charged by members of his church with some offense. The critics of the new trustees were delegated power some time ago to investigate certain charges against one of their number. The man was guilty, because he admitted it, and he declared that his brethren, who were deeply tainted with as much corruption as he, must defend him and prove his innocence. Indeed, the prime factor in the investigating committee admitted to the editor of this paper that his associate "was guilty; notwithstanding, we must clear him." He was vindicated, and the poor woman who was outraged was proven to be a liar. These are the critics of the new trustees.

A prominent colored attorney, not far from Lawyer T. L. Jones' office, cleared two individuals of grave charges made against them by members of their churches.

The people are perfectly satisfied with the new trustees.

This is a case of the devil correcting sin. Read the BEE's history of the record of the men next week.

BAPTIST MINISTERS CHANGE THEIR MINDS.

TRUSTEES BROWN AND RICHARDSON INDORSED—THEY NEVER DID OPPOSE. THE NEW TRUSTEES—MEN OF HIGH MORAL CHARACTER.

The BEE reporter was present at the session of the Baptist ministerial meeting last Monday, and we are thus enable to give our readers the proceedings. The session lasted from 11 a. m. to 4 p. m. The time from 1.30 to 4 was spent in wrestling with the problem of whether or not they should indorse the selection of Rev. Sterling Brown and Dr. Geo. H. Richardson as trustees of the public schools.

Brother Lee started the ball rolling by calling up the resolution offered at their previous meeting by Dr. W. Bishop Johnson indorsing the selection of the trustees. This brought Brother Taylor, of Shiloh, to his feet, who had greatly calmned down, and was as gentle as a lamb, but still insisted that there must have been some trick played in making the appointments. Brothers Lee and Bishop Johnson agreed with the speaker.

The speaker found that a wonderful change had come over the brethren since its last meeting and since the BEE had pointed out certain facts to its readers, for many of them declared that the church had nothing to do with the matter anyhow. While Brother Howard, of South Washington, declared that his 2,000 members stood by the appointment of Dr. Richardson, many others declared that Dr. Richardson had been one of the most active workers in all the churches in promoting the lyceums throughout the city, and was one of the best members ever named. Whereupon, a brother moved that the meeting indorse his appointment, when Brother Lee sprang in the arena and championed the cause of Rev. Sterling Brown, and declared that his lamb (Brother Brown) should not be slaughtered; said Brother Brown was one of the purest and best men in the Christian ministry, and the one should not be indorsed without the other.

Mr. Geo. C. Smith being present, was introduced and invited to address the meeting, which he did.

He declared that all this talk about a deal and University Park Temple was without foundation; in fact, that not a single member of that church had anything to do with the selection; that another gentleman and himself had presented the names of Dr. Richardson and Rev. Sterling Brown to Mr. Ross more than two years ago, long before Park Temple was dreamed of, and that since that time other indorsements had followed, until they had so piled up that they were the best indorsed men ever presented to the Commissioners, and not a single member of Park Temple had gone forward in the matter.

This seemed to satisfy everyone except Brother Taylor. Brother Bishop Johnson declared that Mr. Smith would not make such a statement if it were not true. Whereupon Brother Bishop Johnson's resolution indorsing the two trustees was called up and passed without a dissenting voice.

When Brother Taylor saw that the entire clergy had deserted him, he begged them not to make him the laughing stock of this community. So to please him, they added a qualifying clause, saying they did not indorse the "method," while declaring that they did not believe there had been any "method." That while they had filed Brother Lee's name more than two years ago for the position of trustee, they had slept, and while they slept the friends of Dr. Richardson and Rev. Brown had worked and landed their candidates, and they must blame themselves for their slothfulness.

SOCIETY WANTS IT.

Mrs. Terrell having been defeated with her candidate, Miss Mike Cook, by Miss Emma F. G. Merritt, she has a candidate, in the person of Miss Wilder of South Carolina for the Cooking School, over Miss Freeman of this city. Miss Wilder is not even a graduate of the colored High School, she having gone no further than the eighth grade, while Miss Freeman is a High School graduate and a lady of practical experience in the art of cooking. It will be remembered that Mrs. Terrell had a hitch with trustee Cornish over a similar position, and it is the opinion of many since Mrs. Terrell made the last appointment that this appointment should have been made by some other trustee. There has been some tweedle-dum and tweedle-dee playing in the appointment, which THE BEE will explain when this appointment has been made an issue.

There are several normal school graduates to care for, and why it is that quite a number of the colored trustees will insist on appointing outsiders, is a matter that has not been explained. Miss Freeman is one of the best known young ladies in the city, and one fully qualified for the place.

A NEW CHIEF AND FRIEND.

The appointment of Mr. B. A. Allen as chief of the recording division of the office of the auditor for the Post-Office Department, brings into prominent service a gentleman of splendid executive ability and unusual fairness. He was selected on account of the splendid record he made while occupying a lower grade and the warm interest he manifested in the success of the republican party. His subordinates are highly pleased, and bespeak for him a successfull administration.

OPPOSED TO MRS. TERRELL.

There is a largely signed petition being circulated and will be presented to District Commissioner Ross requesting the removal of Mrs. M. C. Terrell from the school board.

Miss Annie Silence has lodged a complaint, or will lodge a very serious charge, against Mrs. Terrell. In speaking to a BEE representative, Miss Silence expressed great indignation at the retention of Mrs. Terrell on the school board. Mrs. Terrell will be asked to resign.

The testimonial to Mrs. Jesse Lawson at the Nineteenth Street Baptist Church last night was a grand affair. Rev. Johnson, of the Metropolitan A. M. E. Church, made a very eloquent address. A large number of distinguished persons were present.

The cantata entitled "David, the Shepherd Boy," which was rendered at the Nineteenth Street Baptist Church last week by the junior and senior choirs, under the directorship of Mr. J. T. Walker, was well rendered. Those who failed to see this beautiful play may have yet a chance to do so, as owing to the excellent talent and management, the same has been asked to be repeated on a day not far distant.

THE RECORDER'S OFFICE.

Recorder of Deeds Cheatham is still making improvements in his office. Aside from the telephone and messengers' call he recently placed in his office, this week he placed a new and handsome safe in the front office. This safe weighs about 6000 pounds and stands fully ten feet high.

The New Era Building Association, is on the up grade, and deservedly so.

The meeting of the Epworth League was a success in every sense of the term and Mr. W. B. Dulany Mr. C. E. Madell and Miss Sarah E. Fry, certainly deserve great credit for their efforts to make the branch of the very excellent organization alive in Alexandria.

Mrs. Harriet Marlow, an old and respected resident of this city died at her home a few days ago and was buried from Roberts Chapel M. E. church, of which she was a member for nearly thirty years, Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Marlow was really an exemplary christian and was ever ready to testify that she was saved by the blood of the crucified One, by her ways, by her words and by her actions. The funeral sermon was preached by the Pastor Rev. W. H. Gaines, assisted by Rev. Lyles, who testified from her life and character, that she was a christian in every sense of the term. May she rest in peace.

Several thousand dollars have been appropriated, this year, for the purpose of repairing our streets and there are other appropriationstobe made and for several weeks, our city townsmen have been paying to labor from $500 to $1000 and to the surprise of many, no doubt every dollar was paid to white men. A negro is unable to get a day's work on the Corporation works, notwithstanding that he is a tax-payer, yet he is told when municipal officers are to be voted for, that we are all citizens, which of course means on election day. Now when our interested readers are again called on to support officers of our Ancient Corporation, see to it that the nominees you support pledge themselves to support you, and if they fail to do it, vote only for a man through whose veins courses freely negro blood. From the fact that to ignore a man for the reason that he is black in a similar case, is an outrage that we believe is obnoxious to all fair-minded citizens or it certainly should be.

Mr. Charles Grady, of the Fern leaf club, who has been ill for sometime is much improved.

Mr. Albert Hopkins jr., who has been ill in this city for several weeks is able to be out again.

Politicians are very attentive to the republican party leaders just about now.

The Excelsior club will have a sermon preached at their church in the near future.

Mr. Edward Coleman, a former citizen of this place, a prominent western head waiter, is home on a visit, looking remarkably well.

Mr. William Dauglass, the elderly father of Mr. Fairfax Douglass and Mrs. Susie Pinn are very ill at the infirmary.

Smith and Lucas have opened a new barber shop opposite the electric railroad depot, on Royal street.

Mrs. Julia Whiting Tancil of South Royal street, who has been quite ill is said to be convalescing.

The Colored Relief Committee will enter upon the fourth year of their work, at an early date.

It is said that all the ministers of this city will use their influence against Sunday wheel outing.

Read this copy and give us your order for The BEE.

The Fern Leaf Social club of Alexandria, Va., will give a grand ball and gold medal cake walk. Music by the Monumental Orchestra, Prof. Chas. Hamiltan, leader, Monday evening, November, 1st 1897. The many friends of the club and the amusement loving public are very respectfully requested to attend. The president, Mr. C. B. Spriggs will furnish further information if desired.

THE BOOK OF THE ROYAL BLUE.

The "Book of the Royal Blue," issued by the Passenger Department of the Baltimore and Ohio R. R., has made its initial appearance with the October number, and is, undoubtedly, the most creditable magazine of its nature published. Aside from being a model example of modern typography, it is most interesting as to its contents. A field for interesting literature is certainly offered by the Baltimore and Ohio R. R., because it is the oldest railway in the United States; is foremost in historical prominence, and is rich in magnificent scenery. The latter especially affords an endless scope for illustrations, and the magazine has started on its venture with all these points full in hand.

Copies can be obtained by enclosing four (4) cents in stamps to the Advertising Department, Baltimore and Ohio R. R., Baltimore, Md.—Ot-16-2t.

BRUCE IN THE WEST.

SPEAKS AT HIS ALMA MATER — THE GREAT NEGRO REPRESENTATIVE GREETED BY MANY THOUSANDS—HUNDREDS TURNED AWAY FROM THE DOOR.

Oberlin, Ohio.

(Special to the BEE.)

All of Oberlin—citizens, faculty and students came out en masse to honor two of her distinguished sons, Gov. Bushnell and Ex-Senator B. K. Bruce, both of whom were former students more than thirty years ago.

The old college chapel, where they were wont to attend daily evening prayers, was crowded; hundreds could not gain admittance.

This was the first meeting of the campaign, hence no effort was spared to make it a great success. The mere mention of these two names was sufficient to fill the largest church. The committee made a mistake in not selecting the First Church, which seats 4,000, for it would have been filled.

The governor spoke fully forty minutes, when he gave way to Ex-Senator Bruce, who fairly captured the large audience, and for two hours commanded the closest attention, discussing the tariff, the financial question, and a strong plea for an honest and a pure ballot.

His speech to-night stamps him not only one of the most eloquent men who ever addressed an Oberlin audience, but one of the finest campaign speakers of the times. His effort was one to make Oberlin proud of him.

Although this little village has sent forth into public life many men, Cabinet officers, governors, congressmen, judges and others, and two United States senators—Bruce and Kyle—yet she was never prouder of any of them than she was to-night of these two distinguished visitors.

Mr. Bruce, after eloquently speaking of the topics of the day, urged the voters to see to it that they give Bushnell an overwhelming majority and return a legislature that would keep in the Senate Mark Hanna, that greatest of all political leaders. He said at no time was it more necessary to do this than now, that the administration of Major McKinley might receive an indorsement that would be complete.

When Mr. Bruce had finished, many came forward to grasp his hand and to congratulate him upon his grand effort. Among them were some of his old professors, chief among whom was Prof. Skurtliff, who was his teacher, and who well remembered Mr. Bruce as the leader of his class.

Oberlin is one of the most critical towns in Ohio for any public speaker, and he who can pass the test may congratulate himself. Senator Bruce fairly charmed them, both by his eloquence, logic and his familiarity with the great questions of the day.

He and the governor will speak at Akron to-morrow night, and will take a tour through the State together. Mr. Hanna will join them at some of their meetings, making one of the strongest teams in this campaign.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.

Editor of the BEE:

I am one who is opposed to Mrs. M. C. Terrell being a school trustee. I am more convinced that she is all talk and is more interested in seeing how many teachers will bow to her than she is in seeing the schools advanced. Her recent opposition to Miss Emma Merritt for a society woman less competent is convincing to me that she ought to be retired from the school board. Mrs. Terrell is a resident of the county. What right has she to preside over the city schools?

Respectfully, PARENT.

COLOR LINE IN THE SCHOOLS.

NORMAL GRADUATES IGNORED—PREJUDICE CHARGED IN A CERTAIN DIVISION.

Editor of the BEE:

For some time you have been stating that there was no color prejudice in the public schools; I mean the negro schools. I am prepared to show that of all the normal graduates for the last ten years who have not been provided for are the black teachers. You may say this is all bosh and there is no truth in it, but I am prepared to show in writing, if you will publish it, the names and residences of quite a number of those graduates. I am prepared to show also that there is a certain division in the colored schools in which black teachers are ignored. You can take all the principals in this division, and you will see that they belong to the brighter class. Is this to continue? Will Commissioner Ross, who has charge of the schools, continue to retain a trustee against the will of the people? Look around you, Mr. Editor, and be convinced.

Respectfully, JAMES BAILEY.

A SCHEME TO DEFEAT MISS FREEMAN.

ARE COLORED EXAMINERS TO BE IGNORED.

There is a movement on foot to defeat Miss Freeman for the cooking school. Mrs. Trustee Terrell, who has been championing the cause of Miss Wilder, and who is on the industrial committee of the public schools, declares that Miss Wilder will be appointed. Miss Jacobs, the white cooking teacher in the white schools under whom Miss Wilder has been taking lessons all the winter, is to prepare the questions for the examination for candidates for the cooking teacher. Why should Miss Cook, the directress of the colored cooking school, be ignored and a white woman appointed to examine colored applicants? Does Mrs. Terrell think that the colored people will tolerate this?

Miss Jacobs is the directress of the white cooking school from whom Miss Wilder has been taking lessons all the winter. She is to prepare these questions. It will also be remembered that Miss Wilder has been no further than the eighth grade, while Miss Freeman is a high school graduate.

Dr. Richardson, who is a member of the school board, has a duty to perform, and he should do it fearlessly and without favor.

THE YOUTH HELD.

JUDGE KIMBALL SENT THE CASE TO THE GRAND JURY.

Howard Freeman, a youth about 14 or 15 years old was charged, in the Police court, on last Monday of assaulting with intent of raping Irene Jordon and Lena Sawyer, aged six years. Several witnesses were examined who testified as to the alleged assault. Lawyer Sellers, counsel for the boy, said to Judge Kimball that he hoped that he would treat the colored boy as he had treated the white boys and men. "I can cite you cases where white men have been brought here charged with criminally assaulting white girls and a fine only has been imposed. I hope also that you will try the case according to law and the evidence."

At this point Judge Kimball thought Mr. Sellers remarks were a reflection on the court. Judge Kimball informed Mr. Sellers that all the argument and law he could produce would not change his mind as to the guilt of the boy and he turned to Mr. Mullouney and asked him how much bail he wanted. The prosecuting attorney said $2,000 in each case. But, remarked lawyer Sellers, "the court has not heard the testimony of the other little girl and I have not examined her." The court has heard enough. The defendent will give $2,000 bonds for the action of the grand jury. Lawyer Sellers became very indignant and asked the court could he be heard on a reduction in the bail. The court said yes.

MISS MERRITT SURPRISED.

Miss Emma F. G. Merritt, the newly appointed supervising principal, was agreeably surprised on last Saturday evening by the teachers of Garnett building. About 8 o'clock the teachers commenced to call at the residence of the Misses Chase, 1109 I street n. w., greatly to the surprise of Miss Merritt, who was as busy as the ladies in the home assisting in arranging the table to entertain their guests, as she thought. About 9 o'clock every teacher in the Garnett building had assembled in the parlors, even Mr. E. B. Welbourne, which seemed to surprise Miss Merritt, but still she failed to "catch on." She could not account for the assembling of the Garnett teachers at such an hour.

Within a few minutes of 9 o'clock Miss Merritt was presented with a handsome garnet ring, in a neat little speech, to which she made a brief response. After which the uninvited guests repaired to the dining room below and partook of a sumptuous repast

Miss Merritt assumed charge of her new position Wednesday.

"The Sheriff of Nottingham," the first of a series of twelve short stories of "Robin Hood and His Merry Men," by Barry Pain, begins in this issue of THE AMERICAN QUEEN. The story is illustrated by Morestier, one of the foremost illustrators. This will be followed in November by "The Sheriff's Daughter." "Love Will Find a Way" is continued. There is also a short story entitled "Indian Rose," by Mary Guild. Mrs. Shepherd has a full page illustration of girls' dresses, Emma M. Hooper has three pages of fashion, giving a large number of illustrations of the latest styles in dresses, wraps and hats from Paris, London and New York. Mrs. Gesine Lemke gives a lesson in preserving, also a course dinner for six people and how to prepare it at a cost of two dollars Marguerte Merington writes on books, and ventures the assertion that no critic ever killed a good book. Mrs. Hull Winterburn, the author of several books for mothers, edits a department called "Mothers and Children." Lafayette McLaws gives information on the new styles of dressing the hair and advice on beauty and how to secure and retain it. Miss Alliger gives six original designs in embroidery. "Bicycle Etiquette" is written about by Marion Lang. This is the first effort made by any writer to get together the rules which should be observed by wheel women. Geo. R. Knapp writes on the flowers that may be cultivated in and about the city home in the Fall and winter. The cover is in bright colors by Provost. It shows a fashion figure among the Fall leaves.

E. Murray, at 600 and 602 3d street southwest is the best Afro-American confectioner in the city and equal to all others. His cream cannot be surpassed. Mr. Murray has every facility or making good cream and cakes.

Dedication of Scottish Rite Sanctuary.

Thursday. Oct. 7, 1897.

Sanctuary of the A. A. S. R. for the Southern and Western Masonic Jurisdiction was dedicated by the Blue Department and the Scottish Rite. The follo ving well-known members of the Rite performed the ceremonies: Inspector Generals, D. F. Seville, 33°, L. W. Pulies, 33°, E. W. Shields, 33°, G. W Phillips, 33°; Ill. Brothers, F. A. Jackson, 32°, S. Harkins, 32°, W. H. Thomas, 32°; and other brethren well known in the order. The Sanctuary is fitted up for general masonic purposes, and has a General Grand Secretary's office attached. Brother and Ill. E. W. Shields, 33°, W. M. of Hiram Abiff's Lodge No. 3, deserves the greatest credit for the able manner in which he laid off the designs; also his Bowers, Waller and Prentz. All hail! etc.

GEMS FROM THE QUARRY.

At a stated conclave of St. Alban Commandery No 47, Nights Templars, Eminent Sir Francis H. Hemperly, Eminent Commander, was held September 28, in its asylum, Gothic Hall, Masonic Temple, Philadelphia. There was a large attendance of Fraters. Much interest was displayed by the Sir Knights at the proceedings, &c. The Eminent Commander says to Sir Ike Holland, "Sir Holland, how are the Sir Knights and the Brethren in the D. C. getting along with their fight?" Sir Holland answers, "I do not know." "Well Isaac, I think it is bad for Knights Templars to get into that way. There must have been a very poor Grand Commander to allow his subordinate commanderies to rebel and be unable to settle the matter without the same."

A grand meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary of St. Albans Royal Court was held at the State Fencibles Armory, September 25. Among the prominent members were Sir Ike Holland, Grand Commander, Mrs. E. Banks, Grand Commandress, Mrs. Mary A. Holland, Deputy, and others prominent in the Order.

The object of the meeting was to procure an oil painting of Past R. E. G. Commander Jos. S. Wright, and Past Potentate of Lu-Lu Temple of Mystic Snrine (white) of Pennsylvania.

Sir Holland, Grand Commander of Court of Cyrene, has created four new courts. He will make one in Richmond, Va., with Illustrious Meriwether, 33°, as chief.

The nobles of Constantine Temple, A. A. O. N. M. S. Oasis, Providence, R. I., are getting ready to give the visiting Shriners a big set out October 18, 1897. They will give their second grand entertainment proceeds for the entertainment of the visitors. Constantine has a membership composed of the representative Masons of the Jurisdiction; they propose to give the boys a good time. There will be a Shrine parade during the session of the Grand Council.

NEW LODGE OF COLORED MASONS HAS BEEN FORMED.

YORK RITE FOLLOWERS SPLIT FROM STATE RITE.

The colored Masons of Grand Rapids are talking. Harmony Lodge No. 2, F. A. A. Y. M., has been organized out of the ranks of the membership of North Star Lodge No. 5, on the ground that the latter is a state rite organization and not in repute with the Yorkists. Then, too, the claim is made that the powers that be are not progressive enough for the younger men who withdrew. A delegation composed of John A. Bell, 33°., Jos. N. Jenkins, 32°, applied September 13 to the Grand Lodge at its meeting in Covert, Michigan, and obtained a charter. The first honorary member of the new Lodge is Master Mechanic James Kegan of the G. R. & I. R. R. The first Monday night in each month is the meeting time, and No. 65 Canal Street the place. The officers are: W. M., John A. Bell; S W., Jos. N. Jenkins; J. W., Harry Brown; treasurer, James McConnell; Secretary, Gerge Alexander; S. D., James Toles; J. D., Henry R. Carson; Wm. R. Ramsay and George Jacobs; tyler, Geo. Davis; trustees, H. Brown, James McConnell and John A. Bell. "We are now in a position to be recognized by Masons the world over," said Mr. Bell yesterday.—Grand Rapids (Mich) Herald, Oct. 3, 1897.

The split is the result of the fine Italian hand of the Jackson faction. It is simply a forerunner.

Potentate Holland, of Philadelphia, was here Sunday.

Owing to pressure of matteas, we are pressed this week. Next week we will try and have a good column.
